

September 12th, 2017

To Whom It May Concern:

As the Mayor of the City of National City, I am happy to write this letter in support for Mr. Clando Brownlee.

Mr. Brownlee has been involved in many acts of community organizing and service.

As a lions Club president he was involved with the donation of backpacks to monarch homeless children School and volunteered countless hours in a mission with numerous downtown organizations concerning homelessness.

Mr. Brownlee was President of Brotherhood Lions Club 2010 through 2015.

Mr. Brownlee partnered with National City first Earth Day, which was opened to the entire South Bay.

Mr. Brownlee helped with organizing many community recycling events.

Mr. Brownlee coordinated a fundraiser to raise money to send interns to Washington to talk to Senators about National City's education and drug issues.

Mr. Brownlee helped with the donations of fruit trees to the National City School District.

Mr. Brownlee was commended by numerous elected officials for removing more than 8 million pounds of toxic e-waste from San Diego and surrounding landfills.

Mr. Brownlee volunteered with a project that provided seasonal work for displaced veterans.

Mr. Brownlee flew to Sacramento with a team from Interfaith Church to Lobby governor for a clean energy bill which was signed.

Mr. Brownlee helped organize a community health screening at Paradise Valley Hospital in National City.

For the reasons above, I firmly believe that Mr. Clando Brownlee is indeed qualified and experienced in public affairs to participate in the following programs regarding children development, senior assistance, and homeless awareness programs. Through extensive volunteer work, I know that he has the knowledge, skills and abilities to succeed wherever he will work. As a dedicated community organizer who has spent countless time enhancing the welfare of others by working towards a handful of admirable goals, I can testify to his selfless stewardship and passion for helping others when I say that Clando will be a valuable asset to the community of Grandview, Missouri. If you have any questions or concerns, I am available to provide any type of clarification on the matter.

Respectfully,

Ron Morrison
Mayor